

Iron County Register

Published in the Post Office at Ironton, Mo., as Second-Class Matter.

VOLUME XLVII. NUMBER 41.

Ironton, Missouri,
THURSDAY - MARCH 19, 1914.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Any more snow?
No dairy in the valley.
Not so long now until the April showers.

Notice of the city election is printed this week.

Spring is pursuing a policy of watchful waiting.

Well, the groundhog can bother us no more in 1914.

Revs. Burke and Hobbs are holding a meeting in St. Louis.

The spring bonnet, like Easter, will be a little late this year.

Some more shade trees would add not a little to main street.

When Ironton gets macadamized streets we'll shine sure enough.

Will the Country Club show evidence of life as spring opens?

Two councilmen—one from each ward—to be elected next month.

The thermometer got up to 80 Sunday. It was down to 25 Tuesday night. Some change.

A reception was given at the Smith Hotel Friday evening to the new members of the M. E. Church, South.

Commencement exercises at the Missouri Holiness College, Des Arc, Friday, March 20th, 7:30 o'clock p. m.

Several quite expensive and handsome bungalows have been built on the Arcadia Heights since the last assembly.

What has happened to all those game wardens that were going to have a spillway put in the Silver Mines dam?

The Rev. Dr. McMurphy of Louisville, Ky., will preach at the Tabernacle next Sunday morning.

J. R. A. VAUGHAN.

Some one fired a shot gun into the house of Edmonds, near Graniteville, Sunday night. The offenders will probably be under arrest in a day or two.

The Arcadia Valley Business Men's League will meet at the office of the President in the Academy of Music, Friday evening, March 20th, 7 o'clock. All members urged to attend.

Mr. C. N. Robbins and Mr. Wadsworth of Buffalo, Wyoming, who have been spending some time at Hot Springs and other points in Arkansas, were in Ironton last week to visit the former's sister, Mrs. W. H. Mateler.

Dr. W. J. Smith last Friday sold his hotel and sanitarium to the Directors of the Home for Aged Baptists. Several cottages are included in the transfer. Consideration, $10,000. Possession to be given April 15th.

All the county offices except sheriff, treasurer and assessor are to be filled this year. The candidates thus far are a little slow in making their names known, but they will probably get into the limelight soon.

Wm. Trauernicht of Ironton and O. W. Ramsey of Bismarck last week bought from the Syentite Granite Company what is known as the Bacon and Stewart farms, near Graniteville. There are something over 200 acres in the two farms.

Petitions are being circulated asking the county court to make an order for a local option election. The petitions will be presented to the court at the adjourned term to be held April 8th, and the election will probably be called for about the middle of May.

Having disposed of the Smith Hotel and Sanitarium, I will, on Friday and Saturday, April 10th and 11th, sell, at Public Auction, all my Furniture and Household Goods. A very large stock to select from. Some of it over one hundred years old, as well as of latter-day manufacture.

DR. W. J. SMITH.

Do the citizens of this town know that it is unlawful for any person to keep hogs within the city limits, between the months of May and October? The ordinance relative thereto will be rigidly enforced, and Marshall Fisher desires us to warn everybody against its violation, which is punished by a fine of not more than $50, or imprisonment, or both.

The last legislature enacted a law putting the office of prosecuting attorney in the various counties on a salary basis strictly. The salary depends in the population of the county. Under the new law the salary of the prosecuting attorney of Iron County will be $1,000 a year, no fees attached. Heretofore the salary has been $400, with fees for conviction. The new law becomes effective January next.

The Mothers' Club, which has been recently organized for the purpose of assisting in much needed repairs on the public school buildings, was surprised last week by receiving a present of $30. This money is the balance of the fund raised by the Climbers' Dramatic Club in 1912-13, and was voted by the former members to be used in some form of permanent building for the school.

The Ladies' Social Club enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon, March 10, 1914, with Mrs. R. E. Rudy as hostess. After the usual business Irish jokes, or something pertaining to St. Patrick, were given in response to roll call. A social time followed with music and an "ice" contest. Sandwiches, salad, ice cream, cake and coffee were served. The next meeting will be with Mrs. T. B. Pruitt, March 24th.

An oil tank which Chas. A. Helman was heating on last Monday morning exploded, severely injuring him. His left arm was broken in two places and his head and face badly burned. Dr. Eaton treated the injured man and he was taken to the railway hospital at St. Louis where he will remain until he recovers. He surely had an almost miraculous escape from instant death.—Farmington Times.

Died—At her parents' home, near Ironton, Mo., March 14, 1914, at 12:15 a. m., Elizabeth Vienna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Alliger, aged 16 years, 1 month and 8 days. The funeral was held Sunday, Rev. Calvert conducting the services. The remains were laid to rest in the K. P. Cemetery. The whole community joins with me in expression of sympathy for the bereaved family. May time heal the wounds untoward fate has inflicted.

Says an exchange: "A dearth of local news often leads to murmurs on the part of those who prize local gossip above all else, and it is not all the fault of the publisher. Any live publisher will not fail to give all the local news worthy of note, therefore when the local department is short you should not rail at the editor, but remember you might have committed suicide, got married, quarreled with your neighbor, stolen chickens, let your team run away, or done a hundred other things to make a local item. If you want a good newspaper you should do your share towards getting it. Any man can die and deaths are news."

The following is taken from The Tri-State Union under date March 5, 1914: "Anna Cecelia Schofield, the daughter of Mrs. Mary J. Schofield, died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hulet Seybolt, No. 23 Orange-st., at 9 o'clock on Monday morning, after a long illness, of a complication of diseases. She was aged 24 years. Miss Schofield was born in this city in the year 1890. She was the daughter of the late R. Ed. Schofield and Mary J. Schofield. She had resided in this city all her life, until about four years ago, when, owing to her ill health, Mrs. Schofield removed to Huguenot. They resided there until about a week ago, when they returned to Port Jervis to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Seybolt. Miss Schofield was of a lovable disposition, and was a favorite with her many friends in this city. Those who survive her are her mother, Mrs. Mary J. Schofield, of this city, and one brother, James Schofield of New York City." Miss Schofield, together with her parents, visited Ironton during the St. Louis World's Fair and made many friends while here, who will hear of her death with sorrow. She was a niece of Mrs. Hattie O. Davis of this place.

Talk about your freak lightning! Last Tuesday night a week ago during the thunder storm a gum tree about three feet in diameter was struck by lightning on Clover Valley Farm. The shock was so severe that all the neighbors say they thought their houses would fall from their foundations. A day or so later Gus came home from town and noticed on their hill something standing about twelve feet high, which looked like a tree. On going and investigating he found it to be a large gum tree—nothing left but a part of the trunk twelve feet high, and on the northeast side of the tree a hole ten feet long, and two and one-half feet deep and about three feet wide at top. Rocks had been thrown out which would weigh over 100 pounds. Following this about 150 yards, lightning had gone along the ground and split into rails a tie log which was lying on the ground. Fifty pounds of dynamite could not have caused a greater jar. Not a limb of the tree over a foot long could be found, and mud and leaves were thrown in the tops of the tallest trees standing near it. One of the bolts passed over the farm stock yards, and was too high to do any harm. P. S.—Since then Gus has killed three snakes, and one of the Thurman boys four. The lightning must have shocked the snakes so that they came out of their winter quarters. Anyway, that is the supposition of some of the neighbors.

The following letter, issued January 30, 1914, by Mr. A. H. Webb, Superintendent of the Missouri Pacific Railway, Wichita, Kansas, is worthy of reproduction in every paper in Missouri as well as Kansas: "To School Principals and Teachers: Am writing you in the interest of Safety First movement, which has been organized by railway companies and other large industries all over the United States. The object is, as you know, to prevent accident, and put the curb factories out of business, to make every man his brother's keeper, and to have his safety in mind, as well as his own. Many children are made orphans and mothers made widows due to some careless act that could be prevented if Safety First was taken into consideration. As I have said, we are trying to avoid accidents, and I can think of no one who can render greater assistance than the teachers of school children, for if this important feature is taken into consideration, and is instilled into the child while young, it will come to be a part of education. If the child is taught to be careful, instead of reckless, it should be beneficial in more ways than one. While I am strongly in favor of Safety First being made a study the same as any other in the schools, I realize that in this I may not be successful at once, but I feel that in due course of time this will be brought about, and in the meantime am asking you to assist the movement by teaching it in your own way to scholars. Almost every day we see accounts of children run over by street cars, automobiles and trains. We also see the results; that is, many a poor boy minus a leg or arm. We always pity him and feel sorry for him, because he has to go through life a cripple. Quite often we hear of children hurt in baseball, football and other school games. If you could save a human life, wouldn't you feel justly paid for your efforts? You may not actually snatch the child from under the wheels, but you will know that you have done equivalent in teaching them Safety First, and thereby equip them in a way to save themselves. Of course you know there are state laws and city ordinances that make it a felony to trespass on railroad property, hop trains, etc., and while in some cases you may find it necessary to mention this to bring pressure in obtinate cases, as a matter of education it would do no harm for children to be made conversant with these laws. I sincerely hope you will co-operate with me in this good cause.

Yours truly,
A. H. WEBB.
Mrs. Lulu Gillam Woodside's Spring Millinery Opening will be held Thursday evening, March 26th, from 8:00 to 10:00 o'clock. Everything desirable in the Millinery line will be on display. See her advertisement. Everybody is most cordially invited.

The following announcement came to me by last Saturday's post: "Mrs. Lella Mary Church announces the marriage of her daughter, Ruth, to Lieutenant John O'Brien, Philippine Scouts United States Army, on Thursday, the twenty-sixth of February, nineteen hundred and fourteen, Los Angeles, California." How, speaking learnedly, tempus fugit! But yesterday "Joe"—we all called him "Joe," for short—was here a boy interested principally in base ball, with several youthful side lines to fill in. Now he's a lieutenant in the United States army away off in the Philippines, and—married! The years which are passing all too rapidly for me, happily bring to him the fruition of his dearest hopes. I am gratified that "Joe," for "Joe" was always a deserving boy and his present station in life is but the reward of that deserving. May the gods bless and prosper him and her who has entrusted to him her future happiness! In connection with this event—interesting to all the older residents of the Valley—I quote the following from the Los Angeles Times: "A morning wedding at St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral, Dean McCunick officiating, the participants being Miss Ruth Church of Seattle and Lieut. John O'Brien of Manila, P. I., was the culmination of a pretty romance which had its beginning in the Philippines about a year ago. Miss Church, a petite brunette, having striven somewhat too vigorously for the highest honors of her class in a well known college for young ladies, had been advised to take an ocean voyage. Accompanied by her mother, a tour of the Orient was undertaken. Several members of the party, owning extensive plantations on the Island of Mindanao, planned a side trip and chartered a coaster to take them. Mrs. Church and her brilliant daughter were also invited to make the trip with them. The objective point was Fort Lebak, where Lieut. O'Brien was in command. Needless to say, the young officer was delighted to do the honors of the Post, and so faithfully did he do the same that his efforts resulted in an immediate and violent attack of heart trouble which proved contagious, and in due time Miss Church became a victim. It was decided that the case was hopeless unless the wedding bells were rung, and Lieut. O'Brien made application for leave of absence "under exceptional circumstances," arriving recently in Los Angeles where Miss Church was spending the winter. Following the ceremony an elegant breakfast was served at the Alexandria Hotel, to which Mrs. Church had invited a few close friends of both families. Lieut. and Mrs. O'Brien will make their future home in the Philippines."

Des Arc News.

We are having fine weather. Farmers are sowing oats and planting potatoes.

F. F. Farr has returned from the West. Sold his claim, so I understand.

I was at Harviell, Greenville, and out on Mo. S. S. Business picking up over there. Called on M. L. Copeland. He has a big stock of goods, farming implements, etc. I saw more plows at his store than I ever saw at one place. He seems to be busy all the time. Sells by wholesale to saw mill stores. I also met Brother Fred Gertz and wife. They were returning from Bunker where they organized a Nazarene Church. They are fine singers and church workers. They have several solicitations to assist in meetings this summer. Rev. Wm. Seals is pastor of the Ellington church. He is a good preacher. While at Hendrickson, I called on Harwell & Harwell, merchants there. They are selling lots of goods; mostly cash. They tell me they average one hundred dollars per day. Neely Harwell was formerly from Des Arc. I took supper with him. He has just completed a new house; the painters were finishing it up when I was there. I shall call on D. F. Stevenson at Taskie who has opened a big store and saw mill there. Mrs. M. A. Polvis is visiting friends in Piedmont and Patterson. Sorry to hear of the death of Dr. Holmes. He will be missed very much by the Sunday Schools and Churches of Piedmont. They can hardly get along without him. He was also a fine business man. While at Piedmont I met my old friend, Jim Bowers. He is bookkeeper for S. A. Lee and he told me he will be a candidate to succeed himself in the next Legislature. He will make a good race for he has been there before and everybody knows him. Miss Allie Fitz is visiting in Ironton and also her brother, W. L. Fitz, at Libourne, Mo. Wm. Pole has opened up his new store. He also has built a nice little home. We were glad to hear of the great revival by Burk and Hobbs. While we were only there a few times, we are glad that so many stood up for Christ and promised God that they would lead a better life. Religion is a business transaction between a man and his God. It is a debt he owes to his maker and the only way you can pay it is to live right; and if you live right you will die right. So stand up for Jesus. You may fall down and get weak but rise again; don't give up. C. M. Stevenson is doing quite a land business down in this section. He has sold 14 farms in the last six months and has several more on the string. The total amount these farms brought was fourteen thousand and fifty seven dollars. ISAAC.

Baptist Church Notes.

The weekly conference of Sunday School workers was resumed at the church Monday night. This meeting will be held every Monday evening at half past seven.

The Junior Union meets at the church every Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock. The Junior includes boys and girls under sixteen years of age.

During the eleven days' meeting at the church, following the Burk and Hobbs meeting, one hundred and nine persons were received into membership. Several others have indicated their intention of uniting with the church, and a good many others have sent for their church letters with a view to joining the church in Ironton.

Pastor Riggs will preach next Sunday, morning and evening. Sunday School 9:40 a. m. Young People's meeting half past six.

Stockholders' Meeting.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Bank of Arcadia Valley for the election of Directors, and for the transaction of such other business as may be deemed necessary, will be held at its banking house on Monday, April 6th, 1914, at the hour of 2:30 p. m. of said day.

MARCH 1914.
D. EDGAR FLETCHER, President.
ALBERT J. BOARDMAN, Cashier.

Notice of Election.

The stockholders of the Ironton Academy of Music Company are hereby notified that an election of Directors of said Company will be held in the Hall, in Ironton, Missouri, on Monday, April 6, 1914, between the hours of two and five o'clock on the afternoon of that day.

J. E. GRANDHOMME, Secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Settle were in town last Monday.

Mrs. Clarence Shelton and little ones returned last Sunday from a two weeks' visit with her parents in Piedmont.

Mr. and Mrs. David Lasater returned last Thursday from Greenville, where they buried their baby on Tuesday.

A crowd from Bellevue attended the lecture by Rev. Chas. Anderson, at Caledonia, last Monday evening.

It is reported that Wm. Johnson of Bismarck has bought the farm where Robt. Johnston lives, and will move soon. We do not know just where R. E. Johnston will go.

J. T. Patterson closed a successful 8 months' term of school at Thorn Grove last Friday.

David Hartman, of whom we spoke last week, died at his home at 9 o'clock last Friday. Mr. Hartman had been a sufferer for several years; hadn't been from his home for something near four years. He was an old citizen and had many relatives and friends. His funeral was preached by Rev. Calvert of Ironton, on last Sunday, at the Baptist Church, of which he was a consistent member, and was buried in Eldon Cemetery. The procession following the remains showed the esteem in which he was held. Those attending the funeral from a distance were, Wm. Hartman and Mrs. Geo. Carly, of Carlisle, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. John Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fitzpatrick, of St. Louis; Mr. and Mrs. John Hartman, of Black; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Shelton, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Bean, of Caledonia; B. F. Burnham, of Ironton.

For the encouragement of the Bellevue Epworth League, we beg space in which to tell of the program on last Sunday evening. It had been previously announced that the League would take an "imaginary trip" around the world, and twelve of the party were appointed to write papers or tell of the things that impressed them, most especially of missionary conditions. Consequently, all were in their place and prepared. The regular League topic was omitted, and the 10th chapter of Romans read as an evening lesson, followed by prayer. First on the program was Gladys Bell; she gave an account of the Home Mission work in St. Louis, also a glowing description of the beautiful scenery from St. Louis to San Francisco, Cal. Then, Miss Annie Campbell took up the needs of ### Annapolis Items.

A hazy cloud hangs over the sun this morning—a token of bad weather coming; and, as a weather sign, all the Roosters of chicken kinds are crowing over town this morning. The preachers are gone from this town today.

The law-suits in Esquire Kitchell's court went off Saturday, the 14th, peaceably and quietly. O. H. Manger, attorney for plaintiff, and Chas. E. Bolch, attorney for defendant. The case will be appealed to Circuit Court. There will be quite a contest over this for a loss of only 4 sacks of Peruna, valued at $6.10. Lawyer fees and costs already double the principal, and before done with will twice treble the amount sued for.

Gus Funk went to Farmington for an examination on the 14th day of March for the Post Office at Annapolis. He was billed for Ironton March 4, but was sick on that day and did not appear.

Saturday night was quite a spreeing night for a great many of the boys around this place. Did not cease till near two o'clock a. m., Sunday.

We have a new barber in town and can put up a fine Saint Louis hair cut or shave.

Annapolis is now blessed with two barber shops. Mr. Sweaze is running a shop for Dr. A. Worley in this town. The correspondent is at a loss where their living comes from—ten dollars a week being about the limit of the custom.

James Colonbeck, the block system man of Annapolis, who left here one week ago with his wife and babe, is now located in Colorado Springs, Colorado, well satisfied. He is a good man and has a good woman, and I wish them success wherever they go.

Dr. Holmes, an old resident of Piedmont, passed away about one o'clock Saturday morning last. The doctor was a good man and leaves a wife, father, mother and several children to mourn his loss.

George Patrick and three children died near Vulcan last week. Mr. Patrick was an old resident around Vulcan for the past forty years, and all the harm he ever did was to himself. He left a host of friends to mourn his loss, besides some children, his wife having gone on before him several years.

Charles E. Bolch has gone to Saint Louis on special business and may not return for a day or so. All of his belongings are in the Boatmen's Bank, and it being burned out he may have some business in the Bank before returning.

Wm. Huff of Vulcan, Missouri, has moved to Oldman, Reynolds County, and there will preach, and manufacture ties and cross ties by the use of elbow grease and broad axe.

There have been quite a lot of transfers of lands this winter; but do not amount to much, as it is all through kinfolks and residents near about here.

Chas. E. Bolch has the biggest end of his ties loaded out and gone—something near fifty cars during this month.

George W. Slusher has moved back into the town of Annapolis.

Esquire Kitchell is on the sick list ever since last Thursday, but at present is much better. Bad cold was the worst complaint.

Gus Funk is about laid up in bed for the past week with a bad cold, but keeps a-going just the same, and many others in the same condition. This is good weather for colds.

Lon Q. Webb has several boarders at present.

Fred Warren has lost two pigs and thinks they are stolen as they had no chance to be on the commons, and disappeared just the same.

John Reed, Constable of Des Arc, was in Annapolis last Saturday on a special call.

A couple of Welsh's sons of the firm of Welsh & Sons of Redford are in Annapolis today, on their way to St. Louis to lay in spring and summer goods. They claim they are having a fine trade and business is good with them. Hard times are rarely thought of out in their country.

Nathan Sutton went to Poplar Bluff today to have one of his eyes removed and an artificial eye inserted. Wm. Sutton accompanied him down there and back.

Wm. Sutton has moved into the house Colonbeck went out of.

Ed. Loyd has moved out on his farm north of Annapolis. He moved into town last fall to give his little children a chance to go to school this winter.

John Q. Webb is going to erect a building on his premises to be used as a barber shop.

Have you tried the New drink called Cherry Chik, which can be had at the Candy Kitchen?
